Where the applicant is a company or other corporate entity (as opposed to where you are applying for products or services yourself as a sole trader or a partner in a partnership) then this section about CRAs will only apply where you are a director, key shareholder, member or a proposed guarantor for that organisation.

  - 12.4 We will also share your personal information with CRAs as part of our reciprocal data sharing arrangements. The data we exchange may include:
    - 12.4.1 Name, address and date of birth
    - 12.4.2 Details of the relevant credit application

    - 12.4.4 Public information, including from sources such as the electoral register and Companies House.
  - 12.5 We will continue to share your personal information with CRAs for as long as you or the organisation with which you are linked remain our customer. This will include details of the settled account and any debts not fully repaid on time. It will also include details of any rentals/repayments made to us and whether amounts are paid in full and on time. The CRAs may provide this information to other organisations that wish to check your credit status. We will also tell the CRAs when you or the organisation with which you are linked settle account(s) with us.

12.6 Where any credit application is a joint one, or where you have disclosed that you have a spouse, partner or civil partner, or that you are in business with other partners or directors, we may link your records together. You should therefore share and discuss this information with them before making an application. The CRAs will also link your records together and will remain linked until one of you successfully files for a disassociation with the CRAs to break that link. Ordinarily, you will need to provide proof that you no longer have a financial link with each other.

12.7 The identities of the CRAs, their role as fraud prevention agencies, the data they hold, the ways in which they use and share personal information, data retention periods and individuals' data protection rights with the CRAs are explained in more detail in the Credit Reference Agency Information Notice or "CRAIN". This is accessible from each of the three UK CRAs:

www.equifax.co.uk/crain/

  - 20.1.6 to request that the processing of your personal data be restricted, for example where you believe it is unlawful for us to process it, you believe the information we hold is inaccurate, you have objected to its use and our investigation is pending, or we no longer require your information but you require us to keep it for legal reasons;
  - 20.1.7 to object to the processing of your personal data in certain circumstances, particularly where we rely on 'legitimate business interest' as a lawful basis for the processing of your data;
  - 20.1.8 to object to certain automated decision-making processes using your personal information;
  - 20.1.9 to withdraw consent to processing where we rely on this as the only lawful basis for processing. If you withdraw your consent, our use of your personal data before your withdrawal remains lawful; and
  - 20.1.10 to complain to a supervisory body. Please see the section entitled Complaints and Contacting the Regulator below.
- 20.2 You should note that some of these rights, for example the right to require us to transfer your data to another controller or the right to object to automated decision making, may not apply as they have specific requirements and exemptions which may not apply to personal information recorded and stored by us.
- 20.3 Other rights, however, are absolute rights and have no conditions attached, such as your right to withdraw consent or to object to processing for the purposes of direct marketing.
- 20.4 The way we process your personal data and the legal basis upon which we rely to process it may affect the extent to which these rights apply. If we choose not to action any request from you, we will explain the reasons for our refusal.
- 20.5 We may request evidence of your identity before processing any request. This is to ensure the security of your personal information.
- 20.6 If you would like to exercise any of these rights, please contact us using the contact details provided in the Contacting Us section at the end of this privacy notice.
- 21. HOW TO WITHDRAW YOUR CONSENT
- 21.1 Where we rely on your consent to process your personal data, you may withdraw your consent at any time. We may nevertheless continue to process your personal data if we have other lawful reasons to do so.
- 21.2 Please be aware that, if you withdraw your consent, we may not be able to provide our products and services to you or the organisation with which you are linked.
- 21.3 If you wish to withdraw your consent, please contact us using the contact details provided in the Contacting Us section at the end of this privacy notice. Withdrawal of your consent does not affect the lawfulness of our use of your personal data before you withdrew your consent.
- 21.4 If you wish to withdraw your consent to any direct marketing to which you have previously opted in, you may also use the 'Update My Marketing Preferences' or 'Unsubscribe' options contained in our emails and other marketing messages.
- 22. COMPLAINTS AND CONTACTING THE REGULATOR
- 22.1 If you are unhappy with the way we are using your personal information you can make a complaint to the UK Information Commissioner's Office or your local data protection regulator.
- 22.2 However, we are here to help and would strongly encourage you to first contact us directly in the event of any query or complaint and we will do all we can to resolve any issues you may raise. Please see the contact details provided in the Contacting Us section at the end of this privacy notice.
